Abstracts

With home care volume sales declining slightly during the year, 2023 saw current value growth driven largely by inflation and the main players' price increases, on top of price rises that were already imposed by major players in the second half of 2022. The private label segment reinforced its position in 2023, following an already strong performance in the previous year. Private label continued to benefit from budget conscious consumers looking for less expensive options in the midst of challen...
