Abstracts

This quarterly briefing examines the current state of home care globally, focusing on the most considerable upgrades and downgrades in our Q3 IFM update, looking into markets and categories. All regions have witnessed a downgrade in their value forecast. Home care will continue to grow, but an increased likelihood of an all-out trade war between the US and China and economic tensions in Latin America have led to GDP growth revisions across the board, drawing a slightly more pessimistic outlook.

Euromonitor International's Home Care: Quarterly Briefing Q3 2019 global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Home Care market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within home care, analyses leading companies and brands and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging/ format /ingredients innovations, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or retail pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.
