Abstracts

In 2022, France witnessed high inflation, which was mainly attributed to the hike in energy and commodity prices. Consequently, local consumers sought ways to reduce their expenses and turned to more affordable options, including light-emitting diode (LED) lamps. LED lamps have gained in popularity as the dominant light source in France, not just for being cost-effective, but also for being more technologically advanced compared to traditional lighting options such as halogen lamps. They are...
