Abstracts

The housing market and migration, both of which generate significant demand for home improvement and gardening stores, were at the lowest level in the last 10 years in 2012. Declining consumer purchasing power continued to force consumers to postpone home improvements. Home improvement and gardening stores was amongst the hardest hit channels in the last five years, with a negative current value CAGR of 7% in 2012.

Euromonitor International's Home Improvement and Gardening Stores in Hungary report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
