Abstracts

Urbanisation continued to grow significantly during 2016 and it is estimated that more than 73% of the population are now living in key cities like Tehran, Mashhad, Isfahan, Tabriz and Shiraz. Considerable proportion of this concentrated population is living in old, un-renovated houses and newly built apartments that do not comply with maintenance standards. These buildings are therefore ideal places for both flying and crawling insects to lay eggs and increase their population. In addition, hot...
