Abstracts

Home products specialists continued to see declining sales in Denmark in 2023 for several reasons. First of all, home improvement and gardening stores, as well as homewares and home furnishing stores, had seen strong growth during the COVID-19 crisis, as many consumers spent their time at home and money that they would otherwise have spent on holidays or going out on making home improvements. Indeed, the shift to remote working strengthened this trend, as many consumers rapidly had to establish...

Euromonitor International's Home Products Specialists in Denmark report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
