Abstracts

Home products specialists maintained double-digit current value growth in India for a third consecutive year in 2023, along with slow growth in outlet numbers. Although growth was seen across all channels, pet shops and superstores saw the strongest increases by both measures in 2023. Pet care is a product area that has not traditionally been significant in India. However, due to urbanisation, changing nuclear family set-ups, and the pet humanisation trend, there has been a boom in pet ownership...
