Abstracts

Home products specialists saw stagnant growth in Ireland in 2023. This is attributed to the boom in home improvements over the pandemic lockdowns, which has since eased off. Added to which, inflationary pressures and the cost-of-living crisis are suppressing consumers' spending power, placing further negative pressure on potential sales.

Euromonitor International's Home Products Specialists in Ireland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Home Improvement and Gardening Stores, Homewares and Home Furnishing Stores, Pet Shops and Superstores.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
