Abstracts

Sales of home products in Israel in 2023 were being supported by the surge in demand for housing. Indeed, according to local news reports, the last quarter of 2023 saw home prices rise, which demonstrates a surge in demand for housing. In turn, this means demand for new furniture – notably so with living room furniture. The demand for high-quality, modern, living room furniture has seen a significant rise in recent years, reflecting the preference for sleek, contemporary, and sustainable designs...
