Abstracts

Home products specialists saw healthy growth in current value terms in 2023 albeit this was largely due to the impact of inflation rather than a significant increase in demand. Consumers continued to invest in their domestic spaces in 2023 with this trend being boosted by Italy's superbonus government initiative which provided financial help to consumers who were looking to make their homes more energy efficient. While the policy's benefit to consumers and the economy remains under debate, and t...
