Abstracts

Home products specialists saw mixed results in 2022, albeit the overall category registered a decline in current value terms. Home improvement and gardening stores saw a heavy decline in current value terms in 2022. There were several factors behind this sharp decline in demand. Firstly, consumers spent a lot of money during the pandemic on making improvements to their homes and gardens, with this being driven by lockdowns and home seclusion. As restrictions were eased and consumers have started

Euromonitor International's Home Products Specialists in Switzerland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
