Abstracts

Sales of home video declined in 2022 in retail volume terms with this trend continuing into 2023. This is mostly due to increasing pressure on consumers' disposable income with Romania experiencing elevated rates of inflation which has led to a sharp rise in the cost of living. In addition, many Romanians purchased new or replacement televisions in 2020 and 2021, due to the fact they found themselves stuck at home. As such, this reset the replacement cycle for many households. With the pandemic...
