Abstracts

Retail volume and value sales of home video (comprising solely of televisions following the exit of video players in 2021 due to a greater switch to digital streaming services) recorded single-digit declines in 2022, as the category continued to stabilise following a surge in demand during the pandemic. Additionally, as COVID-19 restrictions were lifted in Singapore in 2022, consumer spending shifted to more experiential activities, such as travel. 2023 is promising to be a more positive year fo...
