Abstracts

Despite seeing an uptick in economic activity in Vietnam after the pandemic peaking, sales of home video products have been declining during 2022-2023. This is partially due to category maturity and a high penetration rate, which has limited demand, but also because many consumers have felt the need to tighten their belts due to prevailing economic uncertainty and a lack of job security. In an effort to drive demand and clear stocks many brands and retailers launched various deep discount progra...
