Demand for “greener” and more sustainable home care products continued to grow in 2017 due to rising environmental awareness among German consumers. In line with this trend, home care products with more eco-friendly packaging experienced significant growth in popularity. One prominent example is Werner & Mertz’s Frosch brand, which offers a renowned line of green products. Werner & Mertz is known as a pioneer in home care when it comes to creating more sustainable packaging solutions; recent exa...
