Abstracts

In 2022, lighting was the fastest growing category within home furnishings in Spain, driven by further demand for light-emitting diode lamps (LED). LED lamps have been growing dynamically for a number of years due to their energy-saving credentials. However, sales received a considerable boost in 2022 for a number of reasons, including European energy regulations that came into force in 2021, as well as the skyrocketing energy prices seen around the world as a consequence of the war in Ukraine.

Euromonitor International's Home Furnishings in Spain report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of market demand at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (historic date range), allowing you to identify the categories driving growth. It also identifies the leading companies and their brands, and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing demand - from new product developments, consumer lifestyles, route to market and pricing issues. Forecasts to 2027 illustrate how market demand is expected to evolve in the medium-term
