Abstracts

Overall, home improvement recorded a notable slowdown in current value growth in 2022 compared to the previous year. This was because many local consumers had mostly completed their home improvement projects during the pandemic. This mainly refers to categories such as bathroom and sanitaryware and floor covering, when consumers prioritised these major renovation tasks in 2020-2021, due to heightened hygiene concerns as a result of COVID-19. However, while growth for these products notably slowe...
