Abstracts

Current value increased in 2020, but growth was not quite as high as in 2019. With people spending large amounts of time at home and also having more time on their hands, many took to painting their homes. As a result, decorative paint performed well and was also boosted by the trend of decorating homes with paint instead of wall paper. Floor tiles was another stronger performer. Property investors in particular that often buy smaller “smart” 30 sq m apartments, mainly kit out the properties wit...
