Abstracts

After a spike in demand for most homewares categories in 2020, when the pandemic first hit the country, and a dip in sales a year later, 2022 saw sales rise again as consumers stocked up on eating and cooking products. During the pandemic, Germans connected with their homes in a way that their pre-COVID-19 lives had never allowed. During lockdown, homes became multifunctional spaces, providing a curated and comforting living environment, while also accommodating remote working, home schooling an...
