Abstracts

Homewares in Spain witnessed robust value growth during the pandemic years as lockdowns and home isolation fostered a widespread interest in home cooking. In 2023, however, without any restrictions on mobility, Spanish consumers returned to their typical habits of eating outside of the home. This had a negative impact on some cookware, such as ovenware, as demand for home cooking normalised. Despite this downward trend, other homewares categories such as dinnerware and beverageware continued to...
