Abstracts

Soaring prices in the hosiery category led to double-digit value growth in 2023, although volume sales reported a significant decline. High inflation remains an issue fuelled by escalating input costs, including raw materials like cotton. The devaluation of the Egyptian pound has pushed up the cost of imported threads and finished products. However, local brands have also been negatively affected as local cotton prices jumped to record levels in 2023, amid increased demand and a decrease in glob...
