Abstracts

2020 was a year of decline for overall apparel and footwear, but for hosiery it was a disaster. One-third of the category's volume and value sales vanished in just this year. 2021 and 2022 also saw declines, although at a much slower rate. Even in 2023, with society returning to normal and more time being spent outside the home, hosiery is set to see a negligible retail volume decline, and only negligible current value growth. Inbound demand has been reviving to some extent in 2023, but this is...
