Students in Thailand have a strict dress code when going to school which requires plain-pattern hosiery in white and brown to match their uniforms. Parents therefore normally need to purchase new pairs of hosiery for their children for the new semester. While students are core users of hosiery, the growth in the number of working people is also supporting demand. Most men wear leather shoes or even sneakers to work and require hosiery for their shoes, while women sometimes need hosiery for their...
