Abstracts

In 2023, Australia has witnessed a year of normalisation, as its residents settle into their new post-pandemic routines. With the end of restrictions and a reduction in anxiety about infection, Australians are embracing a return to their normal daily lives. However, the impact that the pandemic had on the palates and habits of Australian consumers continues to linger. Current value sales of fresh coffee are expected to continue to grow throughout 2023, primarily driven by retail sales. Many loca...
