Abstracts

Total volume sales of hot drinks recorded minimal growth in 2023, driven by on-trade sales and positive developments within tea and other hot drinks. High saturation levels contributed to a slowdown in growth, especially across retail channels. Following the lifting of COVID-19 restrictions, consumers shifted towards away-from-home consumption as everyday lives became busier again. As such, on-the-go and office consumption of hot drinks rose, while home consumption declined, with the exception o...
