Abstracts

Tea, which was once a rapidly growing category in Brazil, is encountering a slowdown in its retail volume growth, due to evolving consumer preferences and economic shifts. While tea is no longer viewed as an essential commodity by some, there is still immense growth potential, contingent on innovation and diversification. The Le?o brand stands out as a trailblazer, particularly with its innovative product line Fases da Mulher. This line, which is tailored to women's wellness during various life...
