Abstracts

Overall, retail volume sales for hot drinks are expected to fall marginally, due to a slight fall in volume sales for coffee, which is by far the most popular hot drink in Croatia. The picture is not much better for tea and other hot drinks, with only minimal volume growth expected. Continuing population decline dampens volume sales, as does continuing inflation, with constant value sales expected to fall across all hot drinks. That being said, price growth has eased. Foodservice fares better, w...
