Abstracts

The lingering economic effects of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis have been exacerbated by high inflation towards the end of the review period. This has exerted strong upward pressure on product prices and the cost of living, which tempered demand, while boosting current value sales. In 2023, the retail demand for hot drinks was stable as foodservice volume sales continued to rebound strongly from the COVID-19 slump. This is projected to see moderate total volume growth for hot drinks over 202...
