Abstracts

The COVID-19 pandemic has largely ended, but there has been little respite, either for the hot drinks industry specifically, or for the US as a whole, with inflation quickly replacing COVID-19 as the top concern of both companies and consumers. The shift in consumption habits from homes to coffee shops, which happened after the pandemic eased, is now being threatened, as consumers face high costs for daily necessities. Due to this, they are trying to reduce their expenses by cutting back on unne...
