Abstracts

Hot drinks packaging recorded a sales spike in unit volume terms in 2020, as consumption of these products moved into people's home due to foodservice closures, mobility restrictions and home working/learning. However, as society began to open up again, to an extent, in 2021, sales of hot drinks packaging recorded a decline in unit volume terms. This was mirrored in the biggest product types in Hong Kong hot drinks: instant coffee, flavoured powdered drinks, and green tea, which declined in 2021...
