Abstracts

Discounters continue to disrupt the grocery market with their low cost but high value offerings after years of middle-market grocer complacency. Competitors are starting to catch on, though. In this competitive landscape, grocery retailers must learn the difference between cutting costs and cutting products indiscriminately, while remaking their stores for the new value-oriented consumer.

Euromonitor International's How the Evolution of Modern Grocery Benefits Discounters global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the retailing industry, highlights emerging trends, their effects on retailing in markets around the world, on the development of channels and consumers' shopping patterns. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they the developments of new store types, the importance of non-store retailing, economic/lifestyle influences, private label or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Non-Store Retailing, Store-based Retailing.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
