Abstracts

Budapest and Gyor stand as Hungary's economic powerhouses, with Budapest showing the greatest promise for future economic expansion. However, the country's cities will continue to face persistent challenges. In the short term, these challenges include a global economic slowdown, rising inflationary pressures, and tightening financial conditions. In the long term, Hungary's cities will face an ageing and declining population.

Euromonitor International's City Review reports analyse key trends and developments in 126 world's major cities. They provide localised city information in terms of economy, consumer lifestyles, housing and transport and city environment and offer valuable insights for strategic planning.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
