Abstracts

The COVID-19 pandemic saw consumers place an increased focus on their overall health and wellbeing. More and more consumers looked for ways to maintain good health, as they became increasingly concerned about COVID-19 infection and their ability to recover from it. This saw a growing number of consumers shift to make health a key priority, and they actively looked for ways to incorporate positive changes in their daily lives. This trend continued in 2022, despite the easing of the pandemic, and...
