Abstracts

While the impact of the pandemic started to gradually wane in Canada towards the end of the review period, echoes remained in 2022. For one, wellbeing and health trends were at the forefront of consumers' minds as they were still concerned about keeping themselves healthy. Despite the fact that foodservice in Canada was starting to recover, volume sales of cooking ingredients and meals through the channel declined as many consumers continued to cook at home. As the public strives for wellbeing,...
