Abstracts

Low GDP growth and the highest inflation in decades characterised the Chilean economy in 2022. These economic conditions limited the growth in sales of healthy snacks, because in general they have a higher unit price than traditional snacks. However, health and wellness is a concern for Chilean consumers, and many categories and brands still showed growth in 2022. In the context of high inflation, many consumers looked for brands with competitive prices. Private label benefited from this trend,...
