Abstracts

Rising health awareness in the Czech Republic continued to positively impact snacking trends in 2022. Natural ingredients, healthy positioning and product fortification remained in demand. These trends were further supported by new product launches, including Mentos + Vitamins B6, C and B12. Czech consumers recognised the higher specific value offered by functional confectionery and low sugar products in 2022. However, intensive price promotions and discounts were evident, as local consumers sou...
