Abstracts

The current health and wellness trend, which was accelerated by the emergence of the pandemic in Hong Kong, has resulted in the launch of a wide range of healthy snacks. Snacks based on vegetables and options accompanied by claims such as high protein, high fibre and good source of vitamins all grew in 2022. Plant-based snacks, such as freeze-dried broccoli, also saw rising demand, as their high fibre and low sugar content make them popular choices for local consumers and their children who may...
