Abstracts

The pandemic adversely affected consumption of snack bars with these products having fallen out of favour as consumers spent more time at home, but with the return to normal life in 2022, sales also returned to growth. Convenience and taste were at the top of the list of consumer demands as they returned to more active lives in 2022 with this favouring sales of snack bars. In line with the healthy eating trend, the most popular products were those with functional claims, a reduced sugar content...
