Abstracts

The global energy crunch in 2022 led to cost inflation which adversely impacted Singapore's import-reliant snacks industry, resulting in price-sensitive consumers' shift to favouring snacks in larger pack sizes which offer better value for money. However, this trend was in stark contrast to the growing health and wellness trend, whereby there is an increased emphasis on snack consumption in moderation, hence pushing the purchase of multipacks. The multipack format accommodates for portion contro...
