Abstracts

During 2022, the perceptions of Argentinean consumers with regards to health and wellness soft drinks were still being shaped by their experiences during the COVID-19 pandemic, which meant that many consumers remained heavily focused on products with clear health benefits. This supported demand for juice, a category of products that are generally seen as healthier options in comparison with carbonates and other types of soft drinks that contain high levels of added sugar. In particular, 100% jui...
