Abstracts

2022 was an interesting year for the health and wellness soft drinks industry in Norway as demand patterns continued to be shaped by two countervailing trends. The first of these was the positive impact of domestic tax policy, specifically the removal of the soft drinks tax on 1 July 2021, while the second was the negative impact of cross-border grocery shopping, which resumed in earnest among mass consumers in 2022 following two years of suppressed cross-border shopping activity between Norway...
