Abstracts

Pasta has seen demand rise as a result of the COVID-19 crisis. As a staple product that can be stored and cooked easily, even by novice cooks, pasta saw great sales growth during the lockdown period and continued to benefit even after the easing of restrictions as an inexpensive and easy-to-cook meal component. Within the pasta category, two specific types have seen the most positive impact. Consumers displayed particularly strong demand for high fibre and organic pasta, both of which are strong...
