Abstracts

In 2022, demand for staples foods was polarised between consumers searching for lower prices due to high inflation in the country and those who opted to adopt healthier diets and were willing and able to pay more for higher quality or specific value, including products with certain health claims. Due to legislative and consumer pressure, the industry is gradually moving towards salt reduction, although some products are not labelled as “less salt”. On 1 April 2022, a new legislation that targets...
