Abstracts

Hypermarkets faces long-term challenges, notably the gradual erosion of the one-stop shopping trend amongst German households. In addition, in 2022 hypermarkets also suffered from the major disruption created by the rebranding of most Real stores, which led to temporary store closures, as well as the permanent closure of some Real outlets.

Euromonitor International's Hypermarkets in Germany report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
