Abstracts

The consumer behavioural effects of COVID-19 still remain in 2021, due to several lockdown measures remaining in place. There is expected to be a small current value and volume increase. During the closure of foodservice, which was almost half of year in 2020 and part of 2021, people adopted to cook more at home and bought frozen desserts or ice cream to complete their meals. Healthy versions are not so popular, as consumers look for indulgence. Due to the increased amount of time spent at home...
