Abstracts

Hot drinks packaging sales in Singapore declined in unit volume terms in 2022, for the weakest performance since the stagnating sales seen in 2016. This decline was largely a result of the normalisation after the pandemic, when greater time spent at home as well as an increased focus on health and immunity had led to a sharp increase in the consumption of hot drinks. Furthermore, rising inflation and commodity prices, as well as issues with coffee and tea harvests around the globe, have been put...
