Abstracts

Having plunged by more than one fifth during 2020, retail current value sales of ice cream and dairy desserts are set to rebound strongly during 2021. This will reflect a partial loosening of COVID-19 restrictions, which will boost impulse purchasing and on-the-go consumption. The economic environment will also begin to improve, boosting consumer confidence. The lowest rate of unit price growth in almost a decade – due in large part to the proliferation of promotional offers – will also be a fac...
