Abstracts

Ice cream was one of the worst hit categories in 2020 due to the onset of COVID-19 and the country going into lockdown at the start of the peak season for ice cream consumption (summer). However, the category is set to recover only a small proportion of the sales lost last year, despite the early arrival of summer in 2021. Hot day temperatures were already visible in February and set to increase towards the summer months. However as there are lockdown impositions in various parts of the country...
