Abstracts

Ice cream is expected to maintain solid retail volume and current value growth in 2021. To control the spread of COVID-19, consumers have been spending more time at home, including more people studying and working from home. This is contributing to more at-home consumption occasions, boosting demand for larger formats such as multipack ice cream and take-home family ice cream. These formats offer great convenience to consumers as well as being better value for money than buying single serving ic...
