Abstracts

Retail volume growth of ice cream and frozen desserts is predicted to marginally slow compared to a notable upturn in demand for take-home ice cream due to the home seclusion and indulgence trends during an anxious period as a result of the pandemic. Decline for impulse ice cream during this time had understandably dropped with 2021 predicted to record only stable demand as an extended lockdown into early 2021 is likely to influence further caution amongst some consumers in spending too long out...
